

Imam/Youth Director

The Muslim community of Bettendorf, Iowa is seeking an individual to fill the dual role of Imam/Youth Director for fostering both the spiritual and personal growth of the congregation, particularly its youth. The ideal candidate will be someone who can balance religious leadership with a genuine passion for youth development, helping to build a strong, supportive community within the mosque.

Qualifications:

- In-depth knowledge of the Quran, Sunnah, Fiqh, Seerah, and Islamic jurisprudence (preferably backed by a degree in Islamic Studies from a recognized institution).
- Excellent communication skills in English, both spoken and written (Arabic proficiency is preferred).
- Proven ability to lead, mentor, and inspire youth, as well as the broader community.
- An understanding of the unique challenges faced by Muslim youth in a Western or multicultural environments with the ability to address these issues within an Islamic framework.
- A background in social work or psychology, along with experience in developing and managing youth programs, is highly desirable.
- 5-10 years of prior experience as a religious leader in the United States is required.

Salary and benefits will be based on experience and qualifications, with a compensation package ranging from $70,000 to $95,000. The package may include a housing allowance, health insurance, paid vacation, and opportunities for professional development.

Additionally, a $5,000 signing bonus and assistance in relocation will be provided,

Interested candidates should submit their resume with salary history and references to:

ahmedovais@hotmail.com or mail to:

Imam Selection Committee, MCQC
2115 Kimberly Road
Bettendorf, IA 52722